PEC Showing

Here at Providence there are many showing opportunities that fit each rider's experience, goals, level of commitment, horse suitability, and budget. We host barn shows and attend "B" and "C" rated shows. We have a qualified staff to help find an appropriate lease or purchase of a horse or pony for these show opportunities and can also lease our own academy horses.

Horse Leasing- Riders must be concurrently enrolled in lessons at PEC.

Academy Leasing is available on a few of our horses. The fee is $850 per month and allows the rider to ride 3 times per week, inclusive of lesson days.

Half Leases are available and priced individually. A minimum 6-month lease term is required. Board is $1,000/month. Lessees assume ½ of all veterinary, farrier, husbandry, and insurance expenses.

Full Leases are available and priced individually. Full lessees are responsible for 100% of all expenses. A 15% commission applies to all full leases.

Lesson Descriptions

Beginner I- Learn to safely approach, halter, and lead a horse, Learn to groom, tack, mount, and dismount, Introduce riding aids, learn correct riding position and balance exercises. Introduce trotting and the concept of diagonals. Learn the two-point position and posting at the trot. Practice utilizing riding aids in steering exercises. Enjoy trail rides.

Beginner II - Know parts of the tack, continue working on diagonals, begin pole work. Introduce the sitting trot and strengthen two-point position. Improve use of all riding aids, steering and gait transitions. Learn to canter and enjoy trail riding.

Beginner III- Tack independently, increase strength, balance, and body position at walk, trot, canter, and two-point position. Introduction to no stirrup work at the walk and trot. Strengthen and improve the use of all riding aids. Begin cantering individually. Introduction to leads. Develop ability and confidence in working pole patterns, Introduce the use of rhythm and stride counting.

Intermediate I- Work on transitions. Know leads and expand the use of riding aids, including leg yielding, half halting, and leg-to-hand connection. Introduce collection and extension at the canter. Continue to work on cross rails and jumping small solids. Begin course work and improve stride counting.

Intermediate II- Develop clear understanding and execution of circles, serpentines, and figure eights, continue transition work, develop leg-to-land and apply to course work, improve counting, balance, position, and strength over fences, jumping to 2'3".

Advanced- Continue position strengthening. Apply prior knowledge to higher jump heights. Master and execute flying lead changes. Develop consistent balance and rhythm in coursework. Master ability to alter stride length on the flat and in coursework. Utilize all aids to maximize responsiveness and rideability. Individually tailored instruction is available for advancing equestrians based on their riding goals in hunt seat, jumping, and equitation disciplines.

Policies

School Year Tuition Policies- Tuition is based on a 40 lesson school year session and is divided into monthly payments. August and June are half tuition and cover two weeks each. The payment for the remaining 36 weeks is divided equally between September and May, and accounts for four lessons each month. August tuition and the registration fee is due on August 15th. All other tuition payments are due by the 1st of each month.

Tuition may be mailed, dropped in the payment box, or automatically debited from a Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover charge card left on file.

Annual Registration Fee- $75 and due by August 15th, 2023, or with new student registration.

Late fee- Tuition is due by the 1st of each month and if not received by then, a late fee of $40 will be applied. To avoid late fees and ensure timely payments, please provide credit card information for automatic debiting. MasterCard, American Express, Visa and Discover are accepted.

Discounts- There is a $10 discount applied to every family's second monthly lesson. The discount for the summer session is $20.

Lesson Withdrawal-In order to notify the barn of withdrawal and cease responsibility for payment of services, a four-week written notice must be submitted to providenceequestrian@gmail.com. Accounts must be settled at the time of withdrawal.

Make-Up Lessons – We can only provide make-up lessons for the following circumstances:

- 1) Injury or illness with doctor's note provided or
- 2) Barn closure due to weather or staffing unavailability. In these instances, you will be notified as early as possible, and the lesson will be rescheduled.

To notify the barn of a lesson that will be missed due to illness or injury, please email providenceequestrian@gmail.com.

Horse Assignments- These are based on rider suitability as well as lesson plans and are up to the sole discretion of the instructor. However, make sure and let your instructor know which of our school horses are your favorites! Remember- It benefits every rider to ride many different horses.

Unmounted Lessons- PEC will hold up to two unmounted lessons during the session. Material presented in these lessons is a valuable part of a rider's education.

Our "A" Show barn  is under the direction of nationally acclaimed trainer and resident professional, Todd Wisegarver. He offers his experience and expertise to the rider showing at A rated shows. Stonehaven offers comprehensive services from finding the right horse for each rider, to lessons, and show preparation. Combine this with training and conditioning of the equine athlete, riders enjoy well prepared horses and much success in the show ring.

Boarding and Training

$1950/month Board services include cleaning the stall throughout the day, feed and water, hay 3-4 times per day, turn out, blanketing as weather dictates, feeding supplied supplements, administering medications, hand walking in inclement weather, grooming, laundry, and arranging for farrier and other services. Training services included in this board are treadmilling, peesoing, lunging, and up to 12 training rides and 4 jump schools per month. Additional rides are billed at $50/ride and $100/jump school. Treatments included in this board are hoof packing, prophylactic hoof treatments, wrapping, poulticing, medicated baths, icing, and soaking, and minor wound treatment. A supply fee of $80 will be charged to each boarder quarterly due on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1. Tacking service is available for lessons and included in the cost of board.

Leasing and Buying

When you make the decision to buy or lease a horse or pony, the professionals at Providence Equestrian Center are here to help. We have matched up many successful horse and rider teams already, and their results speak for themselves! Boarding at Providence offers every owner the peace of mind that their horse receives the highest quality care under veterinary supervision in a safe, well managed facility. Their horse's training and conditioning program is individualized and under the supervision of our resident professional. Complete with nutritional management using high quality grain and hay, state of the art arena footing, and a professional groom staff, horses and owners have everything they need to protect their investment and enjoy excellence in performance.
